About this Aircraft

The Falcon 2000LX is a large-cabin aircraft with a range of 4,000 nautical miles, enabling nonstop travel between major domestic and international city pairs. Powered by two Pratt & Whitney PW308C engines and featuring a wing design with blended winglets, the aircraft delivers efficient performance and fuel economy while maintaining the ability to operate effectively on shorter missions.

The cabin seats 10 passengers and offers extraordinary comfort, featuring a stand-up height and a wide cross-section. In-flight accessible baggage storage supports extended trips, while the GoGo AVANCE L5 wi-fi allows for productivity throughout the journey.
